Welcome Message

Dear Colleagues,

The Swiss Society for Interventional Pain Management is proud to welcome you in Montreux again this year for its annual congress. This year we decided to focus on complications linked to pain management and treatments.

We will address various aspects of our daily practice via different approaches and update our knowledge with our internationally renowned speakers.

We will gently walk from non-invasive to invasive approaches during these two days, discuss the safest treatment strategies we can provide to our patients.

Friday night, as last year, our evening will start with the exceptional participation of a “special guest”. The gala dinner will be as usual very casual!

Ladies and gentlemen, open your agendas, it is time to book these dates!

We hope to see you all in Montreux.

Philippe Mavrocordatos
Congress Chairman, SSIPM President
