

Pain and Neurogenic Inflammation

in Clinical Medicine 2021

Hybrid:
Live & Virtual

TOPICS:

Learn More About Hard-to-Treat Chronic Pain Syndromes

Discuss Novel Therapeutic Approaches With an International and Interdisciplinary Faculty

Get an Overview of Antagonists Against Nerve Growth Factor for Osteoarthritis, Already Approved anti-Calcitonin Gene-Related Peptide Antibodies for Migraine and More Treatment Targets

Exchange Experience with Different Specialties Such as Neuroscience, Rheumatology, Orthopedics, Neurology and Pain Medicine

December 3, 2021

Lausanne, Switzerland

Event Location: University Hospital Lausanne

Spitalzentrum
Centre hospitalier
Biel-Bienne

PROGRAM

---

CHAIRS:	Matthias Seidel, Spitalzentrum Biel / Centre hospitalier Bienne Thomas Hügle, University Hospital Lausanne
10:00 - 10:30	Welcome Remarks & Introduction
10:30 - 11:00	Chronic Pain without Perspective – Do we still have a long way to go? Matthias Seidel, Switzerland
11:00 - 11:30	Old Spices and Herbs for Modern Pain Therapy Bart Morlion, Belgium
11:30 - 12:00	Substance P as a Target in Chronic Pain? Walter Zieglgänsberger, Germany
	Break
13:00 - 13:30	NGF in Osteoarthritis and Low Back Pain – quo vadis? David Walsh, United Kingdom
13:30 - 14:00	The therapeutic potential of targeting soluble epoxide hydrolase for chronic pain Victoria Chapman, United Kingdom
14:00 - 14:30	Topical NSAIDs – Fascinating Revival of an Old Story Nancy Lane, United States
	Break
15:00 - 15:30	Cannabinoids for Everyone with Chronic Pain? Serge Perrot, France
15:30 - 16:00	CGRP in Migraine and Beyond Antoinette Maassen van den Brink, The Netherlands
16:00 - 16:30	Further Directions of Chronic Pain / Concluding remarks All
	Aperó